

Australia Awards

Transformational Business Leadership A course for outstanding alumni of Australian Universities

Australia Awards in Indonesia is seeking applications from high performing managers and executives who are Indonesian alumni of Australian universities, employed in the Food & Agriculture, Banking & Finance, or Mining & Energy sectors, to participate in a two-week transformational business leadership course. The course will be delivered by the University of Sydney in September 2017 and it will include networking opportunities and visits to Australian businesses.

To be considered for this course you must:

- Have completed an undergraduate, or postgraduate degree, or short course at an Australian university
- Have a minimum 5-8 years' experience at middle to senior management level
- Have an IELTS of 6.0 or proof of studying in an English speaking country

Women and people with a disability are encouraged to apply!

This is a fully-funded scholarship. For more information, please visit www.australiaawardsindonesia.org

Applications close on Friday 16 June 2017.

To apply, click <https://goo.gl/UpDLpl>

