Tenderers are advised of the following:

This addendum is openly available to all potential tenderers. It consists of responses to tenderers’ questions.

QUESTION 1: Has this program run previously? If so, can you please advise when and by which organisation(s)?

ANSWER 1: This is a new course. It has not run previously.

QUESTION 2: Are there any contingencies for travel disruptions due to global conflicts or other issues that may limit or completely prohibit travel? Would the program delivery move to on-line delivery, be delayed, or require some other modification?

ANSWER 2: This will be assessed with the preferred tenderer closer to the delivery time. The decision will be based on Australian government travel advice. If the course leaders cannot travel to Indonesia, the workshops will be delivered online. If international travel is not possible in/around September, a decision will be made whether the course is delayed/cancelled or delivered online.

All other information as set out in the RFT dated 13 March 2026 remains unchanged.
