Short Term Awards are a key component of the Australia Awards in Indonesia program.

4. Course details

4.1	Background	The Indonesian Medium-Term National Development Plan's (RPJMN 2020-2024) priority policies include industrialisation and digital transformation. Digital literacy and capacity in managing and analysing data (including big data) present challenges for Indonesia to capitalise on digital technology advancements in policy development. Big data is mentioned in the contexts of strengthening governance, financing, research, health sector, public digital literacy, and digital transformation in basic service infrastructure. Indonesia is suited to accelerate digital transformation with over 70 million smartphone users. Approximately 30% of the population are under 30 and mobile penetration is growing rapidly; however, the potential for Indonesian government to use digital technologies to deliver better, more timely and affordable public services is far from being realised. There is a strong focus on using digital technology to improve bureaucracy, particularly in planning, budgeting and service delivery, including integrated online and physical public services and the use of information technology in the legal and justice sector. The COVID-19 pandemic, which has had a significant impact on almost all sectors and the health of millions of people around the world, has also provided many lessons learned which have pointed towards a new system and the importance of 'big data'.

		The use of big data and alternative data sources to help fill information gaps may have an even stronger imperative considering that traditional data collection approaches, such as face-to-face surveys, may not be practical during the pandemic. Accurate and timely data is critical in developing effective responses towards COVID-19. In the RPJMN, the Indonesian One Data policy is also mentioned in relation to bureaucratic reform. It is expected that under this policy, data across the country will be synchronised and previous conflicting regulations and inter-agency agreements will be phased out. The aim is to make data freely accessible for the government agencies. The private sector is also allowed to take part in contributing to the initiative. Governments and policy makers are increasingly using data to inform decisions, but even in Australia they often struggle to use data appropriately. To be effective, data needs to be coupled with an understanding of its limitations, and with an understanding of the human stories that underpin and explain it.
4.2	Purpose	The course draws on policy engagement across a range of DFAT's development programs and partners and will be developed in collaboration with the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO), which as Australia's National Science Agency plays a key role in the Australian data ecosystem. CSIRO powers Australia's national data catalogue, data.gov.au, resolving the challenge of storing and using data by providing open-source software system Magda to assist government agencies in all aspects of data management—from collection and authoring, through internal discovery and use, all the way to sharing inter-organisation or publishing on an open data portal. Magda unlocks the potential of Australia's data, making metadata around datasets easier and quicker to create for non-expert users, which in turn makes it easier to find, access and reuse from both inside and outside the Australian Government. CSIRO also powers Australia's NationalMap through TerriaSJ, an innovative open source solution capable of integrating spatial datasets from a variety of sources (including the national data catalog) to support 3D and 4D data visualisation for policy decision-making. For example, the NSW Spatial Digital Twin developed by the Terria team within CSIRO's Data61 enables visualisation and interrogation of 3D and 4D data models to help the NSW Government with infrastructure asset planning and management, integration with land use planning, data collaboration, and sharing.
4.3	Objectives and outcomes	This Short Term Award (STA) focuses on the use of data (including big data) to inform policy and better public service delivery. The course aims to strengthen the capacity of government (both national and local government) in producing, analysing and using data to inform policy decisions. The course will provide examples, strategies and tools that have been used by international, Indonesian and Australian agencies on the use of big data for policy making and implementation.

		The course is also expected to cover some principles of the “One Data Policy” or Kebijakan Satu Data Indonesia², such as: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Data Standards which refer to the standardisation of data, such as concepts, definitions, coverage, classification, size, units and assumptions. 2) Metadata that underlies structured information related to data that describes, explains, finds, or makes information from data easy to find, use, or manage. 3) Data Interoperability that describes the readiness of data to be shared between interacting electronic systems. 4) Data reference that refers to the use of reference codes for each data produced by data producers in all government units. The course will also contribute to informing Indonesia's response to COVID-19 especially in analysing and using data. Coffey International Development Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards

Purpose

The purpose of a Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards is to provide a framework for decisions and actions in relation to our Employees' conduct both in employment and as Coffey International Development representatives in front of our clients. It underpins our commitment to a duty of care to all Employees, stakeholders and clients receiving our services. The document explains the principles covering appropriate conduct in a variety of contexts and outlines the minimum standard of behaviour and client service expected from Employees.

It is important for Coffey International Development staff and team members to understand that its clients are contracting and paying Coffey to be a professional, responsive and proficient contractor. In the context of this, Coffey staff and team members are not to approach clients for solutions or additional inputs for every problem, rather they should be able to identify and quickly address and solve problems in activity management.

Scope

This policy applies to all Employees of Coffey International Development and all of its subsidiaries and related entities.

This policy applies in respect of conduct which relates to or is connected with, in any way, work with a Coffey company, or in connection with a Coffey Group Company provided benefit. This includes, but is not limited to, Employees who are:

- on Company premises;
- while on duty in any place where Employees of any Coffey company are working;
- representing a Coffey company;
- at a work function organised by a Coffey company;
- travelling for business related purposes.

Responsibilities

Managers and Supervisors

Managers and supervisors are responsible and accountable for:

- Undertaking their duties and behaving in a manner that is consistent with the provisions of the Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards
- The effective implementation, promotion and support of the Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards in their areas of responsibility
- Ensuring Employees under their control understand and follow the provisions outlined in the Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards.

Employees

All Employees are responsible for:

- Undertaking their duties in a manner that is consistent with the provisions of the Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards
- Reporting suspected corrupt conduct
- Reporting any departure from the Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards by themselves or others.

Code of Conduct

Coffey International Development is a complex organisation, which involves a diversity of relationships. These relationships may be defined by differences in power, status, cultural diversity, organisational structures, contracting relationships, differing country laws, labour laws, international relationships and or national governments. It is essential in such a community that all Employees recognise and respect not only their own rights and responsibilities but also the rights and responsibilities of other members of the community and those of Coffey.

Coffey also recognises that many of their professional employees are also bound by codes of conduct or ethics defined by learned or professional societies or groups. It is recognised that these codes are not always in harmony. It is an obligation of an Employee to weigh the importance of these codes in each particular set of circumstances and notify an appropriate officer of Coffey where such conflict may arise.

Personal and Professional Behaviour

You should not behave in a way which has the intent or effect of offending or embarrassing other Employees or the public in a manner contrary to legislative requirements.

When carrying out your duties, you will:

- Obey any lawful direction from a person who has the authority to give the direction. If you have a dispute about carrying out a direction you may appeal to your senior manager.
- Behave honestly and with integrity. You will avoid behaviour that could suggest that you are not following these principles. This will include a duty to report other Employees who are behaving dishonestly.

- Make sure that you carry out your work efficiently, economically and effectively as you are able and that the standard of your work reflects favourably on yourself and the company.
 - Follow the policies of the company in all aspects of work to achieve outcomes that are socially responsible and sustainable.
 - Treat Employees, clients and stakeholders with respect.
 - Maintain individuals' rights to privacy and undertake to keep personal information in confidence.
 - Do not use, possess or distribute pornographic or offensive materials.
 - Comply with all national and international laws.
 - When representing the Company in public forums:
2. Employees at all levels represent the Company in the course of their employment including when travelling on Company business, attending functions on behalf of the Company or internal Company meetings, conferences, training programs, seminars or any other function.
 3. Your behaviour in all these circumstances reflects on the Company and its image. As such, you should act in an appropriate business-like manner that will in no way harm the image of the Company or infringe any other Company policy including the Discrimination Free Workplace Policy.
 4. Where any Company function or meeting is held that involves the availability of alcohol, steps should be taken to ensure that it is not abused. You should be aware that being work-related, behaviour in those situations can be subject to disciplinary procedures.

Conflict of Interest

Potential for conflict of interest arises when it is likely that you could be influenced, or it could be perceived that you are influenced by a personal interest when carrying out your duties. Conflicts of interest that lead to biased decision making may constitute corrupt conduct.

Some situations that may give rise to a conflict of interest include situations where you have:

- Financial interests in a matter the company deals with or you are aware that your friends or relatives have a financial interest in the matter;
- Directorships/Management of outside organisations;
- Membership of Boards of outside organisations;
- Personal relationships with the people the company is dealing with which go beyond the level of a professional working relationship;
- Secondary employment, business, commercial, or other activities outside of the workplace which impacts on clients and/or Employees of the company;
- Involvement in party political activities;
- Access to information that can be used for personal gain.

You may often be the only person aware of potential for conflict. Therefore it is your responsibility to avoid any financial or other interest that could compromise your ability to perform your duties impartially. It is also your responsibility to report any potential or actual conflicts of interest to your manager.

If you are uncertain whether a conflict exists, you should discuss that matter with your manager and attempt to resolve any conflicts that may exist.

You must not submit or accept any bribe, or other improper inducement. Any advances of this nature are to be reported to senior management. If you are dealing with, or having access to, sensitive information, you should be particularly alert to inappropriate attempts to influence you.

Outside employment/other external business activities

If you work full time for the company and you wish to engage in paid employment/other business activities (including participation in family company) outside your official duties you are required to seek the approval of your manager and Human Resources. The approval should not be unreasonably withheld. However, if there is any real or potential conflict of interest the duties of your position with the company must come first.

If you work for the company on a part time or casual basis, you are required to advise your manager and Human Resources of any real or potential conflict of interest between your employment for the company and any other employment.

The company can request the details of any other employment in the event of allegations of conflict of interest.

Public Comment

Individuals have a right to give their opinions on political and social issues in their private capacity as members of the community.

Employees must not make official comment on matters relating to the company unless they are:

- authorised to do so by the General Manager and CEO
- giving evidence in court
- otherwise authorised or required to by law.

Employees cannot release the contents of unpublished or privileged knowledge unless they have the authority to do so.

Use of Company Resources

Employees must ensure responsible management and security in the use of Coffey resources and any resources managed by them for or on behalf of others.

Requests to use company resources outside core business time should be referred to management (or person authorised to handle such matters), for approval.

If Employees are authorised to use company resources outside core business times they must take responsibility for maintaining, replacing, and safeguarding the property and following any special directions or conditions which apply. Company resources can include equipment, typing facilities, photocopiers, computers, tools, motor vehicles etc.

Employees using company resources without obtaining prior approval could face disciplinary and/or criminal action. Company resources are not to be used for any private commercial purposes (e.g. for 'profit' purposes) under any circumstances.

Employees are to make sure that confidential and sensitive information in any form (e.g. documents, computers files) cannot be accessed by unauthorised persons. Sensitive material should be securely stored overnight or when unattended.

Employees must ensure that confidential information is only discussed with people who are authorised to have access to it. It is considered a serious area of misconduct to deliberately release confidential documents or information to unauthorised persons, and may incur disciplinary action.

Intellectual Property/Copyright

The term 'intellectual property' includes the rights relating to scientific discoveries, industrial designs, trademarks, service marks, commercial names and designations, and inventions.

Coffey is the owner of intellectual property created by Employees in the course of employment unless a specific prior agreement has been made. Employees must clarify the intellectual property position before making any use of that property.

Discrimination, Harassment and Workplace Bullying

In addition, Coffey does not condone any form of domestic violence and is committed to ensuring the Employees are provided with information, training and support on how to effectively address domestic violence.

Child Protection

For the purposes of this Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards, a child is any person under the age of 18 years.

The onus is on all Employees to use common sense and avoid actions or behaviours that could be construed as child exploitation and abuse when working for Coffey.

When carrying out your duties, you will:

- treat children with respect regardless of race, colour, gender, language, religion, political or other opinion, national, ethnic or social origin, property, disability, birth or other status;
- not use language or behaviour towards children that is inappropriate, harassing, abusive, sexually provocative, demeaning or culturally inappropriate;
- not engage children under the age of 18 in any form of sexual intercourse or sexual activity, including paying for sexual services or acts;
- wherever possible, ensure that another adult is present when working in the proximity of children;
- not invite unaccompanied children into your home, unless they are at immediate risk of injury or in physical danger;
- not sleep close to unsupervised children unless absolutely necessary, in which case you will obtain your supervisor's permission, and ensure that another adult is present if possible;

- use any computers, mobile phones, video cameras, cameras or social media appropriately, and never to exploit or harass children or to access child exploitation material through any medium;
- not use physical punishment on children;
- not hire children for domestic or other labour which is inappropriate given their age or developmental stage, which interferes with their time available for education and recreational activities, or which places them at significant risk of injury;
- comply with all relevant Australian and local legislation, including labour laws in relation to child labour;
- immediately report concerns or allegations of child exploitation and abuse and policy non-compliance in accordance with appropriate procedures; and

- ensure images are honest representations of the context and the facts; and
- ensure file labels, meta data or text descriptions do not reveal identifying information about a child when sending images electronically or publishing images in any form.

Breaches of this child protection Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards may result in disciplinary and/or criminal action.

Corrupt Conduct

Commonly it involves the dishonest or partial use of power or position which results in one person/group being advantaged over another. Corruption can take many forms including, but not limited to:

- official misconduct;
- bribery and blackmail;
- unauthorised use of confidential information;
- fraud; and
- theft.

Any form of corrupt conduct will not be tolerated by the company. Disciplinary action up to and including dismissal will be taken in the event of any Employee participating in corrupt conduct.

- following the safety and security directives of management;
- advising management of areas where there is a potential problem in safety and reporting suspicious occurrences; and
- minimising risks in the workplace.

Conduct of Current / Former Employees

Employees should not misuse their position to obtain opportunities for future employment.

Employees should not allow themselves or their work to be influenced by plans for, or offers of employment outside of Coffey. If they do there is a conflict of interest and their integrity and that of Coffey is at risk.

Former Employees should not use or take advantage of confidential information obtained in the course of their official duties that may lead to gain or profit, until it has become publicly available.

Client Service Standards

All Coffey International Development staff and team members are committed to the following Client Service Standards:

- Implement activities professionally, with a focus on quality, developmental impact and long term sustainability and with proper regard to cross-cutting development policies, such as gender and the environment, and the whole-of-government approach to development.
- Maintain productive relationships with their counterpart Government and activity stakeholders. This includes a genuine focus on transferring skills to counterparts and promoting counterparts' longer term 'ownership' throughout the delivery of the activity.
- Focus on achieving results and outcomes in a manner that is always accountable and demonstrates probity, procedural fairness and value for money.
- Take responsibility for progress of activities, consulting actively with the client and their counterpart on important problems and issues.
- Use experience and judgement to identify substantive problems in advance and then approach the client (and where appropriate the counterpart) with well-considered, well costed, options and recommendations.
- Demonstrate value adding, innovation, analytical rigour and quality assurance in project or activity management. This includes ensuring quality, clarity and accuracy of reporting, invoicing and financial management.
- Promote high standards of personal conduct/behaviour, teamwork and respect at all times. Lapses in these areas undermine relationships with counterparts, undermine activity effectiveness and reflect poorly on the client.
- Never make decisions that are the proper preserve of foreign governments and/or the funding agency, which alter the substance of the activity or create 'surprises' for the client or the counterpart.

Breaches of the Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards

Employees should note that breaches of certain sections of this Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards may be punishable under laws and legislation.

Breaches of this Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards may lead to disciplinary action. The process for disciplinary action is outlined in Coffey policies and guidelines, relevant industrial awards and agreements.

I acknowledge that I have read and understood the above Code of Conduct and Client Service Standards and will comply with its contents.

Part E

Selection Criteria and Information Required for Price Assessment

1 Financial Proposal

Tenderers must submit a Financial Proposal as a part of their Submission in the separate MS Excel Spreadsheet provided.

It should be a stand-alone proposal and NOT to form a part of the Technical Proposal. This proposal must be submitted in a separate document. The Financial Proposal is worth 20% of the total assessment score.

2 Approach to the Financial Proposal

A financial price assessment of those Tenders assessed as technically suitable by the Technical Assessment Panel (TAP) will be undertaken by the TAP for Coffey. Coffey reserves the right to provide the financial component of any Tender to TAP members for their examination in the context of resource adequacy evaluation against the selection criteria in the technical assessment process.

3 Limited Information Required for Price Assessment

The final Course Budget is negotiated with the preferred tenderer. The financial detail required for the financial proposal (i.e. price assessment) includes the tenderer's management fee and personnel costs as indicated in the AAI Tender Financial Proposal Schedule 1-4 MS Excel spreadsheet (provided to the Tenderers).

Please note - Reimbursable costs associated with the course delivery (i.e. Part B of the Course Budget, sample of the Course Budget is included in the attached sample contract) are not to be included as part of the financial proposal. These costs will be negotiated with the preferred tenderer as part of the contract negotiations process in line with the mandated service levels.

Tables for inclusion within the Financial Proposal, including those containing information required for the purposes of the financial assessment, are:

- Schedule 1: Personnel Course Design Cost
- Schedule 2: Personnel Course Delivery Cost
- Schedule 3: Fixed Management Fee
- Schedule 4: Summary of Unit Costs for Coffey Price Comparison.

Please note! The tables are included in the AAI Tender Financial Proposal Schedule 1-4 Excel spreadsheet provided to the Tenderers.

Tenderers must complete all schedules showing their firm quotations in whole Australian dollars ($AUD). Coffey requires these calculations for the purposes of disaggregating and checking the accuracy of Tenderers' total financial assessment figure. Only the final figure provided at Schedule 4 will be subject to the financial price assessment.

Tenderers should note that inaccurate or inconsistent calculations in the financial component of any Tender may, in Coffey's sole discretion, be grounds for Coffey to deem that Tender non-conforming and exclude it from further consideration under the RFT process.

4 Content of Financial Proposal

Within the Financial Proposal Tenderers must address the criteria as set out in the table below. These criteria will be used to make a like-for-like financial comparison.

Financial Proposal Criteria

Schedule 1: Personnel course design cost

Personnel costs for the design of the course, expressed as number of person days at a daily rate (i.e. cost of the Course Designer/s). The Tenderer needs to make an assessment of the number of person days required to design the course. This may be completed by one person or more. The work may be done part-time or full-time. Tenderers must provide details in Schedule 1: Fixed personnel costs for design of course.

Personnel costs must be aligned to the DFAT Adviser Remuneration Framework (please see DFAT website). Premium remuneration rates are not applicable to this tender. Individuals are not to be costed at the Maximum rates, unless previously approved by the Australian Government. Maximum rates are acceptable if the person meets the requirements regarding the number of years of relevant experience. If the tenderer nominates an expert with at least 15 years of relevant work experience, B4 MRP rate of $887 per day can be applied. The premium/maximum rate indicated in the ARF 'for advisers with an outstanding performance history or for scarce skills', i.e. B4 $1,065 is not to be applied in the tender proposal. If there is an existing case of the tenderer applying the premium/maximum rates in a DFAT-funded contract, Australia Awards in Indonesia will seek DFAT's approval to apply these rates; however, this decision is made by DFAT as part of the contract negotiations with the preferred tenderer. Australia Awards in Indonesia cannot guarantee that the preferred tenderer can apply the premium/maximum rates above $887 per day. The tenderers are therefore advised to apply max. $887 rate in their financial proposals (if the person has minimum 15 years of relevant experience).

Schedule 2: Personnel course delivery cost

Personnel costs for the delivery of the course, expressed as number of person days at a daily rate for each of the nominated personnel. Each of these positions must include a nomination of one person only. Tenderers must provide details in Schedule 2: Fixed personnel costs for delivery of course.

The number of days used to calculate these costs will normally be greater than the actual days of course delivery. Both the Course Leader and Course Coordinator will need to work some additional days on preparation, administration and logistics, preparing the Activity Completion Report and Financial Summary, etc. Tenderers need to make their own assessment of how many person days will be required to undertake these tasks. Noting that this component forms part of the like for like assessment.

Personnel costs must be aligned to the Adviser Remuneration Framework. Premium remuneration rates are not applicable to this tender. Individuals are not to be costed at the Maximum rates, unless previously approved by the Australian Government. MRP rates are acceptable if the person meets the requirements regarding the number of years of relevant experience.

Schedule 3: Fixed management fee

Total management fee to be charged by the tenderer for the design and delivery of the course as described in the Scope of Services. This must include any applicable insurance as outlined in the Draft Contract of this RFT at Part C. Tenderers must provide details in Schedule 3: Fixed Management Fee.

Tenderers must clearly detail any "other fees" to be charged to the course (e.g. financial costs, administration costs, special fees, staff on costs, etc.). These "other fees" will be subject to approval during the contract negotiation process. Noting again that this component forms part of the like for like assessment.

The Fixed Management Fee is exclusive of personnel costs and any other costs directly associated with course design and delivery as outlined in Part B of the Service Fees: Reimbursable expenses incurred by contractor.

5 Retention of Price Component of Tenders by Coffey

The financial components of all Tenders, including those not considered technically suitable, will be retained by Coffey.

6 Escalation

There is no provision for escalation.

7 Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Refer to clause 1.14,1.15 and 1.16 of the draft Contract.
